1. Full-term classes meet only once during final exam week, at the scheduled exam time (right). If the exam start time does not appear on this page, the exam should start at the closest time after the regular start time of the class in the same room as the regularly scheduled class location.

2. Short-term classes meet as regularly scheduled during final exam week. The final exam is held at the last class meeting.

3. Off-Site day and night classes meet only once during final exam week, at the scheduled exam time (right). If the exam start time does not appear on this page, the exam should start at the closest time after the regular start time of the class.

4. West Valley Off-Site classes meet only once during final exam week, at the first regularly scheduled class starting time, for a two-hour exam.

5. Saturday classes meet as regularly scheduled during final exam week. The final exam is given during the last class meeting on Dec 12.

6. Nursing/Health Sciences exams are scheduled by Health Sciences.

7. All students are expected to complete a final examination for all their registered courses as assigned by their instructor. All examinations will, so far as practicable, be conducted in writing and a maximum time will be assigned before each examination. Students are required to take the final examination at the appointed time and place. Students who are in need of special accommodations should arrange this with their instructor well in advance of taking the final exam.

Students who miss a final exam due to unforeseen circumstances, such as a sudden illness, should provide documented evidence to the instructor if the student is seeking a make-up exam. Any challenge or exception to this policy must be approved by the Vice President, Student Services or the Vice President's designated representative.

Families First Coronavirus Response Act: Employer Paid Leave

https://www.dol.gov/agencies/whd/pandemic/ffcra-employer-paid-leave

Families First Coronavirus Response Act: Employer Paid Leave

Generally, the Act provides that covered employers must provide to all employees:[2]

- Two weeks (up to 80 hours) of paid sick leave at the employee's regular rate of pay where the employee is unable to work because the employee is quarantined (pursuant to Federal, State, or local government order or advice of a health care provider), and/or experiencing COVID-19 symptoms and seeking a medical diagnosis; or
- Two weeks (up to 80 hours) of paid sick leave at two-thirds the employee's regular rate of pay because the employee is unable to work because of a bona fide need to care for an individual subject to quarantine (pursuant to Federal, State, or local government order or advice of a health care provider), or care for a child (under 18 years of age) whose school or child care provider is closed or unavailable for reasons related to COVID-19, and/or the employee is experiencing a substantially similar condition as specified by the Secretary of Health and Human Services, in consultation with the Secretaries of the Treasury and Labor.

A covered employer must provide to employees that it has employed for at least 30 days:[3]

- Up to an additional 10 weeks of paid expanded family and medical leave at two-thirds the employee's regular rate of pay where an employee is unable to work due to a bona fide need for leave to care for a child whose school or child care provider is closed or unavailable for reasons related to COVID-19.
